Cruzado single seat with backrest (steel)

Article number: 20000810

Series: Cruzado

Product description

The Cruzado is a beautiful bench in locations where street furniture does not have to dominate. The Cruzado made of steel is subtly designed and therefore fits into any outdoor space. The transparent construction of the bench ensures that it dries quickly again after rain.This Cruzado single seat is equipped with a backrest. With this backrest, visitors to public spaces can sit on the bench with more comfort.

Features

- Additional seating comfort through the backrest
- Subtle bench
- Also available in a wooden version

Materials

The bench is made entirely of steel and is well treated. The steel is hot-dip galvanized and provided with a two-layer powder coating. This ensures that the steel is protected from various weather conditions and thus can last for years in the outdoor area. The steel can be coated in any RAL or AKZO color.
