

Big Bench

Article number: 20000316

Series: Big Bench

Product description

The Big Bench is a striking bench and very suitable for locations that offer space. The bench is excellent to place freely in the space because the design of the bench has been excellently developed on all sides. The bench looks tough, modern, and yet also a bit classic. The sturdy steel construction at the ends of the bench gives the bench an industrial look and fits nicely with the robust woodwork.

Features

- Robust design
- Made of cast aluminum
- Industrial look

Materials

The base is made of cast aluminum and has a two-layer powder coating. This is for the benefit of the durability of the bench. The cast aluminum can be powder coated in all RAL and AKZO colors.
