

Rondure single seat with backrest (end piece with upright, right)

Article number: 20003058

Series: Rondure

Product description

This seat with upright and backrest (right) can easily be combined with a upright (coupler). Then this seat can be combined with an end piece (left) for an arrangement of 4 m. If the bench needs to be longer, combine further with intermediate piece with backrest or intermediate piece without backrest. In this way you can combine the elements exactly to the desired length, each time in steps of two meters. In this way you create a flexible and adaptable seating arrangement.
