

Wenters single seat with backrest - curved (steel)

Article number: 20000008

Series: Wenters

Product description

The curved Wenters bench with inward-facing seat is perfect for designs with playful or organic shapes and blends seamlessly with curves in squares and parks. Thanks to the use of steel, the bench dries quickly after rain. The unique ergonomic design of the seat and backrest offers optimal seating comfort. Moreover, this bench is excellent to combine with other models from the Wenters series, allowing versatile and stylish design of public spaces.
