Product description

The Plane picnic table is a sturdy solution for urban applications that need to withstand rough handling. This modular picnic table exudes strength and warmth through the use of wood. With its restrained design, the Plane picnic set blends into any environment. This table can be combined with benches and poufs from the Plane series. As the benches are freestanding elements, it is easy to step into the picnic set from the side.

For every outdoor space

On request, Grijssen can also supply the picnic set made to measure. In this way, a suitable picnic set can be created for any group size. Thanks to the clever leg construction, the Plane can easily be extended to make longer versions possible. As standard, the Plane picnic set comes with space for four to six people.
